A composite image showing a woman working on a laptop, a person driving a car, and a woman sleeping with a baby. A large, detailed image of a radiation shield is in the foreground. The shield is oval-shaped with a complex, multi-layered design featuring concentric circles and triangular patterns. It has a metallic, reflective surface with a rainbow-like iridescent sheen. The background is a collage of three scenes: a woman in a white tank top typing on a laptop, a person's hands on a steering wheel, and a woman in a white dress holding a sleeping baby. The entire image is framed by a blue and purple geometric design.
